

BOERS TRAP THE BRITISH

Flower of the Army Walks Into an Ambush Near Bloemfontein

LOST SEVEN BIG GUNS

Gen. Brodhead Routed By a Strong Boer Force Under Gen. Botha

ENGLISH LOSSES ARE OVER 350 DEAD AND 200 MISSING.

Duplicate of Disasters to Gatacre, Methuen and Others Causes a Decided Shock in London—Defeat Gives Weight to Kruger's Threat That He Would Retake Bloemfontein—Gen. Roberts Gives Details of This Bloody Disaster to His Force.

London, April 2.—[Special Cablegram]—Gen. Roberts telegraphs from Bloemfontein April 1 as follows:

"Received news late yesterday from Gen. Broadwood at Thabanchu city. He said that information had reached him that the enemy was approaching in two forces from the north and east. He stated that if the report proved true he would retire to the waterworks, seventeen miles nearer Bloemfontein, where we had a detachment of two companies of mounted infantry for the protection of the works.

"My reply was that the Ninth division would march at daylight today to support him, and if necessary he should retire on the waterworks, and he moved there during the night.

"At dawn he was shelled by the enemy and attacked from three sides. He immediately dispatched his two horse artillery batteries and baggage to Bloemfontein, covering them with the cavalry.

Walked Into a Trap

"Two miles from the waterworks the road crossed a deep nullah in which during the night a force of Boers had concealed themselves so well that our scouts passed over the drift without discovering them and not until the wagons and guns were entering the drift did the Boers open fire.

"Many drivers and artillery horses were shot down at short range and seven of the guns were captured. The remainder galloped away covered by Robert's horse which suffered heavily.

"In the meanwhile Lieut. Chester of the Remington scouts found a passage across the Spruit unoccupied by the enemy and by this route the remainder of Broadwood's force crossed, it is reported, with great steadiness, notwithstanding what had occurred.

"Broadwood's report has just reached me. It contains no details, but states that he lost seven guns and all of his baggage.

"He estimates the casualties at three hundred and fifty, including two hundred missing.

"Hearing this morning that Broadwood was hard pressed, I immediately ordered Gen. French with the two remaining cavalry brigades to follow and support the Ninth division, which latter, after a magnificent march arrived on the scene of action at 2 p. m. Sunday.

"The enemy's strength is estimated at from eight thousand to ten thousand, with guns, the number of which is not reported."

Roberts reports further that the enemy who attacked Gen. Broadwood has retired to Ladybrand, eighty miles east of Bloemfontein.

War News Is Unpleasant.

London, April 2, 3 a. m.—The war news from the front is decidedly unpleasant reading in London, and the capture of the British convoy of seven guns is the worst shock since Buller's first retreat across the Tugela.

The public here was beginning to suppose it was all over, and Kruger's reported threat to fight to a finish was regarded as a empty bluff, and that no Boer general was fit to succeed Joubert. But this was false security, to which the news affords a rude awakening.

Botha has shown himself not only plucky but able in the bargain, and his first successful coup will undoubtedly lend courage to the dispirited burghers.

Gives Weight to Kruger's Threat.

The experts here gravely discuss the possibilities of Kruger's threat to take Bloemfontein, and express satisfaction that the attempt to cut Robert's communication on the west by the Boers near Paardeburg was futile, since the English now command the railway to the Orange River.

The story of Broadwood's disaster is painfully similar to every reverse attending the British arms since the war began, as he walked straight into a Boer trap, just as did Gatacre, Methuen, and the rest.

URGES 16 TO 1 INSTRUCTIONS.

Democratic National Press Bulletin Sends Out Advice.

Chicago, April 2.—In the Press Bulletin, issued by the press bureau of the Democratic National committee, under date of yesterday, appears, conspicuous in type and position, "an official pointer to the faithful, of which the meaning cannot be misunderstood or misinterpreted. All delegates to the Kansas City convention, it is insisted, must be 'instructed for the reaffirmation of the Chicago platform and the selection of candidates loyal to it in 1896 and loyal now.' Democrats regard this as equivalent to saying that binding, rigid instructions in favor of Bryan and 16 to 1 must be given under threat of having delegates not so instructed thrown out by the committee on credentials.

TRIED TO BLOW UP A CINCINNATI BOSS

Dynamite in a Box Placed on His Front Porch Early This Morning.

Cincinnati, April 2.—[Special Telegram]—A box containing dynamite, to be exploded by a spring, was found on the porch of George B. Cox, the republican boss, this morning. The matches were damp and failed to ignite when the box was opened.

GREAT STRIKE ON AT PITTSBURGH

Twenty Thousand Miners Refused to Go to Work Today—70,000 More Tomorrow.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 2.—[Special Telegram]—Twenty thousand miners refused to go to work this morning. Ten thousand will join the strikers tomorrow. This practically closes every mine district. General dissatisfaction over the provisions of the new wage scale which went into effect today, is the cause of the strike.

DAVIS CONFIRMS MACRUM'S EVIDENCE

Webster's Sudden Resignation Causes Considerable Flutter in National Political Circles.

Washington, April 2.—[Special Telegram]—The contemplated resignation of Webster Davis Davis was news to Secretary Hitchcock, who declined to discuss the matter. The relations between the two men is said to be strained, and the statement is made that Davis made an engagement to deliver lectures before he started for Africa. The real trouble is said to be between Davis and Pension Commissioner Evans, the former overruling many of the latter's decisions. Hitchcock took sides with Evans and Davis took a vacation. The republican leaders take a serious view of the matter. The democrats are claiming that Davis confirmed Macrum's evidence.

DR. H. B. MILLARD DEAD

Well Known Ft. Atkinson Man Passes Away—Death of D. W. Keyes, a Milwaukee Road Official.

Fort Atkinson, April 2.—Dr. Horace Birney Willard died last evening, aged 75 years. He was born in Volney, N. Y., May 2, 1825, and graduated from the Geneva, N. Y., Medical college in 1849. He came to Wisconsin and settled in the village of Aztalan, this county, practicing there until 1858 when he removed to Lake Mills. In 1869 he gave up practice and came to Fort Atkinson to live. He served several years on the County Board, one year as mayor of Fort Atkinson and in 1861 was a member of the Wisconsin legislature. He held other places of public trust.

Dwight W. Keyes

Milwaukee, Wis., April 2.—Dwight W. Keyes, first assistant general freight agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, died Saturday at his home 405 Brady street. He was 70 years of age last week. He was member of both the Loyal Legion and the Wisconsin consistory Knight Templars which organizations will conduct the funeral.

IRELAND TO HAIL QUEEN VICTORIA

Green Isles Accepts Her Coming as Tribute to Celtic Soldiers

DUBLIN IN A FLUTTER

City Promised a Court of Imperial Splendor For a Week or More

The Irish Capital is Already in Holiday Colors and the Route Which Her Majesty Will Follow For Eight Miles is Continuously Decorated With Streamers and Flags—Cordiality of the Welcome Cannot Be Doubted—Some Threats Are Heard—Orange Procession Might Stir Up Strife.

Dublin, April 2.—The British channel squadron has arrived off Kingstown for the queen's visit, which is awaited with intense and ever growing enthusiasm.

Dublin is rapidly filling. Already the hotels are crowded, and train load after train load is arriving from the provinces. Grand stands have been erected in the streets which are profusely decorated and soon it will be difficult to find space for hanging another flag. A general holiday has been proclaimed for Wednesday throughout the county of Dublin.

Wide Act of the Queen.

The Queen's visit to Ireland is one of the wisest acts of her reign. Dublin has accepted it in advance as an act of womanly grace designed to express appreciation of the work of the Irish generals and the loyalty and gallantry of the Irish soldiers.

He has taken his cue from Mr. Redmond that there is no politics in the Queen's visit, yet is too shrewd a politician himself to offer any resistance to public feeling in Dublin, which has been strongly influenced by the compliment paid by the Queen to the city in holding court here for a season.

Dublin in Holiday Colors.

The city is already in holiday colors in honor of her coming, and the route which she will follow for eight miles is continuously decorated with masts, streamers and flags. The cordiality of her welcome to the Irish capital cannot be doubted.

Some threats are heard that there will be serious trouble and rioting if orange processions are seen in the streets, but it is not likely that the Queen's visit will be marred by any unpleasant accidents.

There are no official announcements in regard to the length of the queen's stay in Dublin. It will probably depend upon the temper of the people there. If there are political disturbances she will shorten it; if she is convinced, on the other hand that her tribute to the loyal services of the Irish soldiers is appreciated and tends to promote good feeling, she will prolong her stay a full month.

Court of Imperial Splendor.

She is prepared to make a long visit and convert Dublin for several weeks into a capital of imperial splendor. Her court will be held in semi state, precisely as at Windsor. The grand coach of state is already here, with a score of the best carriages and landaus from the royal news, Buckingham Palace. From seventy to a hundred horses including her favorite grays, are now at the stable of the vice-regal lodge. A large retinue of coachmen, postillions and servants has already arrived. There will be a great muster of military forces and the channel fleet will be at anchor at Kingstown. The queen's entry into Dublin promises to be a most impressive and brilliant pageant, and there will be a long series of state functions and social revivals while she is here. The queen's tribute to Irish valor is sincere and sympathetic but it is paid with royal dignity and stately magnificence.

RESIGNS TO TAKE STUMP.

Webster Davis Proposes to Talk About Affairs in South Africa.

Kansas City, Mo., April 2.—A Journal special from Washington says: Webster Davis of Kansas City will tomorrow tender his resignation to the president as assistant secretary of the interior. Mr. Davis decided to take this course as the result of his visit to South Africa. He has decided to deliver a public address touching the entire scope of the present war and believes that he can best do so while free from any restraint which his present position would impose upon him. When taking his departure for home from Pretoria 2,000 people appealed to him in tears to state their cause to the American people, and Mr. Davis says his conscience would haunt him if he proved recalcitrant to that pitiful appeal. He believes the American people are not truly informed on the situation. He will therefore avail himself of an early opportunity to relate his experiences and observations at a public meeting that shall be free to all.

TAYLOR VERGES ON MENTAL COLLAPSE

Reported to Have Been Frequently Seen in Burts of Tears

FEARS ASSASSINATION

Morgantown Militia Troops Will Guard Him Back to the State Capital

Kentucky Court of Appeals in Session Today to Hear Arguments in the Consolidated Injunction Suit for the Governorship—It is Believed That Taylor Will Deliver Up His Office Peaceably if the Decision Goes Against Him—Grand Jury on Goebel Murder in Session Today.

Frankfort, Ky., April 2.—[Special Telegram]—This afternoon in the circuit court the first real investigation into the Goebel assassination began. The officials will not disclose the list of witnesses subpoenaed, but Governor Taylor and nearly all the republicans and state officials are among them, it is said. When Deputy Sheriff Suter went to the state house this morning to serve the processes, he was refused admission to serve the criminal processes, but was allowed to serve the civil papers.

Bowling Green, Ky., April 3.—[Special Telegram]—W. S. Taylor, the de facto governor of Kentucky, is still in Morgantown, his old home, and will not leave for Frankfort until this afternoon. He will not be present at Louisville today when the court of appeals will sit to hear the argument in the consolidated injunction suit for the governorship. The argument in the suit will probably consume two or three days and the judges have promised that they will render their decision as quickly as possible after the lawyers have finished their argument.

Numerous republicans say that Taylor will quit his fight and deliver the executive office over to Gov. Beckham if the court of appeals decides in his favor, and it is generally regarded as a foregone conclusion that the appellate court will sustain Judge Field's decision and will call upon Taylor to vacate his office.

On the Verge of a Collapse

Mr. Taylor held a long conference this morning at Morgantown court house with partisan friends. Another conference was held at Rochester, a neighboring town. Taylor, according to information received here, is on the verge of collapsing from mental worry. He is said to have been seen weeping repeatedly yesterday.

The Morgantown military company has been drilling all day, and it is thought is being put in readiness to accompany Taylor back to Frankfort, or wherever he goes. The company is composed of his former fellowtownsmen and party friends. There is no mistake that the military company is preparing for some emergency.

Frequently Shed Tears

A telephone message from Riverside, a town between Morgantown and this city, this morning brought information that Taylor had been in conversation near there with an old-time friend, and was seen to weep frequently. It is reported that in the course of the conversation he exclaimed:

"My God, what am I do do? They will kill me."

It is reported here that Taylor has heard that he may be arrested within the next few days charged with being an accessory before the fact to the murder of Mr. Goebel. It is claimed, however, he will not be arrested unless indicted by the Franklin county grand jury, which meets Monday.

There is no question that Mr. Taylor is expecting such action and is badly scared. Some persons here do not believe Taylor will return to Frankfort at all.

Grand Jury Now to Act

Frankfort, Ky., April 2.—The convening of the April term of the Franklin circuit court today, with Judge Cantrell sitting, marks the beginning of the final legal proceedings against the alleged assassins of the late Governor Goebel, and this makes it the most important in the history of criminal trials in this state in many years. The session of the court was taken up mainly today with preliminaries.

Open the Debate On Porto Rican Bill In The Senate.

Washington, April 2.—[Special Telegram]—The debate in the senate on the Porto Rican bill began at 11 o'clock this morning. Depew making the principal speech. He said the measure was one of revenue and relief and should not be obscured by logging in the constitution.

NEGRO CHILDREN EXCLUDED.

Alton Court Decides They Cannot Attend School with Whites.

Edwardsville, Ill., April 2.—A case of peculiar interest was decided in the circuit court here Saturday. It came from Alton, and was brought to determine the rights of colored people under the school laws of the state. In its decision the court ruled that children of negro parentage could not attend the public schools with white children; that the board of education had a right to exclude them therefrom, but should make provision for their education in separate schools. The negroes of Alton will appeal to the state supreme court.

UNIQUE PLAN TO OUST THE SALOON

AURORA, ILL., TEMPERANCE PEOPLE DEVISE A SCHEME

Plan Well Under Way to Raise $35,000 in Lieu of License Money and Turn the Town Into a Temperance One—$10,000 Has Already Been Pledged.

Aurora, Ill., April 2.—To raise $35,000 to pay into the city treasury of Aurora in lieu of the money annually received from saloon licenses and to ask in return that no saloon license be granted for a year is the unique but difficult task that Aurora temperance workers have imposed upon themselves. The promoters claim that $10,000 is already pledged to the cause in case the sum necessary is raised, ten men having pledged $1,000 each, and the announcement of this fact today has given great impetus to the project.

Must Be Raised in a Year

One year is the time allotted to raise the money, and the prohibition question will be submitted to the voters of Aurora at the spring election in 1901. By raising this fund the temperance workers hope to remove the stumbling block that has always kept Aurora a license town. By supplying the funds that the city would lose in refusing to grant saloon licenses the temperance workers are confident of securing a year's trial for prohibition and hope to demonstrate that the city will save money by the change to say nothing of the moral and spiritual gain.

Ministers Will Help.

The Aurora Ministerial association has endorsed the project, and many of the churches will aid in raising the necessary amount. Private subscriptions are largely relied on to swell the fund. The promoters claim that the men who have already pledged the $10,000 are well-to-do citizens, who are interested in the temperance cause and are amply able to make good their promises. Their offer is conditional on the remainder of the sum equal to the present revenue from the saloon licenses being raised within a year.

Seoilers Think Twice.

The movement has aroused considerable interest, and it is the general topic of conversation today. Those inclined to scoff at the probability of raising such a large sum for such a purpose give the matter a second thought when the announcement is made that nearly a third of the necessary sum is pledged in advance. People generally are quite favorably impressed with the novel plan. Many who doubt the feasibility of no license state that they would be glad to see the experiment tried under such favorable circumstances.

Ireland Denies the Report.

St. Paul, April 2.—[Special Telegram]—Arch-Bishop Ireland denies the report that he has been summoned to Rome in consultation on the condition of the Catholic church in America.

Dr. Hillis Has Withdrawn.

Chicago, April 2.—[Special Telegram]—A letter recently sent to Dr. Gray, editor of the interior by Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, was read before the Chicago Presbytery today. Hillis withdrew from both the Chicago presbytery and the Presbyterian church.

A Monkey's Rights at Issue.

A Washington police court had occasion recently to pass upon the momentous question whether the proprietor of a monkey can be compelled to furnish it with shoes. On the complaint of some benevolent idiot Pietro Florello, by profession a hand organist, was hauled into the temple of justice to answer a charge of cruelty to animals, in that he was utilizing a barefooted monkey in the collection of his precarious income. After a careful research into the law of domestic relations the court reached the conclusion that Signor Florello was under no legal obligation to furnish his friend with footwear, and the case was accordingly dismissed.

LOOKS DARK FOR MAYOR D. S. ROSE

Great Fight on Municipal Issue Only in Milwaukee Tomorrow

BATTLE LINES DRAWN

Democrats Have Been Spending Plenty of Money and Made Noisy Campaign

Public Sentiment, However, is Strongly Anti-Street Railway and it Does Not Seem Possible That Rose Can Prevail Against it—Street Car Magnates Are Doing All They Can to Elect Rose—Both Candidates Are Confident of Being Elected Mayor.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 2.—[Special Telegram]—One of the greatest battles yet fought in an American city on a strictly municipal issue awaits the decision of the voters here tomorrow. It has been a bitter contest and each side has made every effort to win.

The result will probably be a victory for the forces arrayed against the street railway ring. The campaign was practically closed Saturday evening with a monster meeting of the anti-street railway forces that packed the Pabst theatre from gallery to parquet with an enthusiastic audience.

Rose Forces Spending Money.

Mayor Rose with his record of having gone over to the street railway company on the ordinance question, has had the support of the street railway forces, which embraces the machine wing of the republican party as led by Henry C. Payne and Charles Pfister.

In addition to this he has gathered about him a strong following by declaring for a "wide open town." The Rose forces have had plenty of money and it is reported that the street railway company alone put $50,000 into the campaign fund.

In spite of this, however, the indications are that the Rose forces have not made much headway in the effort to change public sentiment.

David Counts on 8,000 Majority.

"I do not see how I can lose," said Mayor David Rose today. "The encouraging indications of the meetings of the laboring men during the week have received added strength in the developments of meetings held Saturday. The laboring men of the city have given me such positive assurances of their support that I cannot but believe them, and with them must count my re-election sure. I know I will have the support of the business men and with that strength it does not seem possible for me to lose. I count on at least 8,000 majority."

Baumgaertner Figures on 6,000

"I am certain of my election," said Henry J. Baumgaertner this morning. "I don't see how they can beat me. The sentiment of this community is aroused in opposition to the corporate influences back of David S. Rose and I believe the expression of that sentiment will give me a plurality of at least 6,000 on Tuesday next."

The indications today are very strong that the whole republican ticket will be carried by from 1,500 to 5,000 majorities. P. J. Somers for judge of probate may run ahead of his ticket some, but not enough to win. The betting is 100 to 80 in favor of Baumgaertner and Wallber.

Elections in Ohio Today

Cincinnati, O., April 2.—The annual municipal and township elections are being held in Ohio today. The contests involve the control of party organizations as well as local offices.

In Cincinnati it is the old fight against George B. Cox as the local republican leader. Both candidates for mayor are prominent Hebrews.

In Cleveland and Toledo the factional fighting has made the situations peculiar. Senator Hanna is an issue in those cities, and in Toledo Mayor Sam Jones is a factor for municipal ownership, especially of the natural gas pipe line. Local issues, factional fights, and opposition to alleged bosses, indicate that party lines will not be drawn closely.

Elections in Kansas

Topeka, Kan., April 2.—Municipal elections are being held in all third-class cities in Kansas today, at which a full set of officials will be chosen. The first and second class cities will hold their elections tomorrow, at which members of the board of education, justices of the peace and constables will be elected.

Went to Bed Drunk

Terre Haute, Ind., April 2.—[Special Telegram]—George Floerken and Dick Colly were found dead in Smith's hotel this morning. It is believed they went to bed drunk and were asphyxiated.

PALMYRA PAPER IS FOR MR. WHITEHEAD

THE ENTERPRISE PRAISES THE JANEVILLE MAN HIGHLY.

None of the Other Candidates, the Editor Says, Are So Well Qualified—Honest, Clean and Able—Wielded Great Influence in the Senate—A Tireless Worker.

One of the handsomest endorsements that Senator Whitehead has received comes from The Palmyra Enterprise. The editor of The Enterprise was one of the employees of the legislature, and therefore knows whereof he speaks. The Enterprise says:

"The daily papers are making announcement of Senator J. M. Whitehead's candidacy for nomination for governor on the Republican ticket. Of all those whose names have been mentioned for this important office, without disparagement to any candidate, none are so well qualified to fill it as he.

"He is a man of unusual activity when any interest is at stake. He never condemns until he has made thorough investigation, and for the same reason never favors a measure unless it is good. As senator during the past four years his influence has been felt more than any other man's in the legislature. He is honest, clean, and in all he does he is actuated by the purest motives. His tremendous capacity for work was aptly illustrated during the last session of the legislature when he would sit up the entire night looking up dates and figures on measures that were coming up the next day. It was just this kind of work that prevented the bounty bill from becoming a law, which proves his wisdom and sagacity. For Michigan has awakened to the realization that the law is a bad one.

"A member of three of the most important committees in the senate, judiciary, privileges and elections, assessment and collection of taxes, being chairman of the latter he was responsible for the passage of some of the best measures that were added to our statute books. There is nothing in our vocabulary too good for Senator Whitehead, but when the heart overflows words fail."

RE-ELECT JUDGE DUNWIDDIE

Voters Should Cast the Judicial Ballot When They Vote Tomorrow.

Two ballots will be furnished the voters at the polls tomorrow. One will be the usual "official ballot" bearing the names of the candidates for city and ward officers and the other is a "judicial ballot," upon which there appears but one name, that of Circuit Judge Benjamin F. Dunwiddie. Judge Dunwiddie's name appears twice—once as the candidate to fill the unexpired term, and once as a candidate for the full term—this procedure being required by law. The voters, therefore, should mark a cross after Judge Dunwiddie's name in both places.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BENNETT

Held Yesterday. Funeral of Mrs. Henry Meyer Held This Morning.

The funeral of the late Mrs. H. J. Bennett took place from the residence, 158 Linn street, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. A. C. Kempton of the Baptist church officiated and the interment took place in Oak Hill cemetery. Many of the early settlers were in attendance from this city and vicinity. The floral offerings were beautiful.

Mrs. Henry Meyer.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Henry Meyer were held this afternoon at half after one o'clock from the house and at 2 o'clock from St. Paul's German Lutheran church. The interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

"Turkey Queen" of Texas.

Miss Anita Martin is known throughout Texas as the "turkey queen" on account of the many turkeys which she has raised on her ranch in that state. So great has been the increase in Miss Martin's business since she started with her four turkeys five years since that she now employs two women and a boy to help take care of her 100 stock birds. Miss Martin sells her turkeys to regular customers, and claims to have cleared $2,500 in a year. The most expensive birds are those which feed on nuts and other fancy foods, which renders their flesh sweeter and more palatable. All the eggs are hatched by incubators, and the food which the turkeys eat are grown on the ranch, thus saving much expense.

A Mother's Duty

is to see to it that her children begin early in life to shampoo their heads regularly once a week. In each instance, after the hair is thoroughly dry, some mild, health-giving tonic should be applied to the scalp to aid nature in creating the best possible growth of uniformly colored, lustrous, healthy hair—the most important feature in the make-up of beautiful women and handsome men. For more than fifteen years, the has stood at the apex of all shampoo washes, while the "Hair Grower" has been equally successful in its efforts to return the injured scalp and almost lifeless hair to their original healthfulness.

NEW TRAIN WELL PATRONIZED

Out of Janesville This Morning For the First Time.

Many people took advantage of the new vestibule train out of Janesville this morning on the Chicago & North western railroad to Chicago. The train runs via Beloit & Harvard and this morning made her first trip from here. Janesville is now well supplied with an excellent fast train service to Chicago, not only on the Northwestern but on the Milwaukee road as well. When the Milwaukee road's new line gets into Janesville better service to Chicago may be expected of the C. M. & St. P. company.

FLAG IN MR. SAWYER'S HONOR

Raised Yesterday by Mr. Tripp of the Town of Rock.

W. H. Tripp, a well known resident of the town of Rock, showed his respect for the late ex-Senator Philetus Sawyer of Oshkosh, by hoisting a large American flag at half mast yesterday at the time of the funeral. The flag was placed on a seventy-foot staff. Mr. Tripp was a personal friend of the late senator, and was with him in the legislature. Mr. Tripp's advanced age prevented him from attending the funeral.

WILLIAM ROSS THE LEADER

Delivered Address At the Y. M. C. A. Building Sunday Afternoon.

Many young men were in attendance at the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the association building. William Ross, county superintendent of public schools was the leader and his address proved to be of special interest. Other speakers took part. Good music prevailed and the meeting was one of much profit.

The Best in the World.

We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. Found Many Stones in Tin Box.

Hartford City, Ind., April 2.—Dock Bolne, a machine tender at the Hartford City paper mill, Saturday found in a bale of old papers which had been shipped from England, a small tin box which contained thirty-one large brilliant diamonds, believed to be genuine diamonds. The box was wrapped in parchment, on the inside of which appeared the address: "London office Paper Trade Journal, 440 Cannon street, London, England." The stones are of various sizes and are believed to be worth a fabulous sum. Bolne is greatly elated over his find.

Six May Be Indicted.

Frankfort, Ky., April 2.—The grand jury met here today to hear the evidence of the commonwealth in the Goebel assassination cases. The six men under arrest for conspiracy in the murder all have been prominent republicans, except Whitaker. The democrats claim that the testimony given by F. Wharton Golden is sufficient to warrant the finding of true bills in six cases.

Disorder in Italian Provinces.

Rome, April 2.—Disturbances are reported today from Bologna, Turin, Naples and Forli between students and socialists, growing out of the recent action of the socialist members of the chamber of deputies, who are now agitating for a convocation of the constituent assembly with a view to reforming the constitution.

Warships Still at Chemulpo.

Yokohama, April 2.—The Japanese press asserts that the Russian squadron is still at Chemulpo, and that it will probably proceed to Musanpo to enforce the demands made. It is believed that in the event of Korea yielding Japan will demand a similar concession on the Korean coast.

Cambridge Wins Boat Race.

Putney, England, April 2.—The fifty-seventh annual boat race between crews representing the universities of Oxford and Cambridge was rowed today over the usual course, from Putney to Mortlake, and was won by Cambridge.

Gov. Dyer Denounces Tariff.

Providence, R. I., April 2.—At the ante-election dinner of the representatives of the Republican party held here Saturday, Gov. Elisha Dyer denounced the action of congress in regard to the people of Puerto Rico.

End Inquiry on Labor.

Chicago, April 2.—The United States Industrial subcommittee adjourned and its members departed for the east.

Chicago, April 2.—Robert Berger was found guilty of embezzlement by a jury in Judge Waterman's court.

A Submerged Forest.

There is a submerged forest on the Columbia river between the Dalles and the Cascade mountains. The submergence took place 350 years ago, and since then the roots have been under water, while the upper parts of the trunks have been bared yearly at low water. The bark is gone, and the wood is partly wasted away, but some of it is firm and looks fresh. This fact seems owing to the durable quality of the wood of that species, namely, the pseudotsuga douglasii.

BRODHEAD WILL HAVE A Y. M. C. A.

Business Men Are Raising a Fund to Put Up a Fine New Building.

Brodhead will have a Y. M. C. A. building and society. A week ago last Friday night a banquet was held at Brodhead by the Y. M. C. A. group of that city. There were 100 business men present together with State Secretary F. E. Anderson of Milwaukee, H. A. Moehlenpach of Clinton, and Hon. J. M. Whitehead and J. O. Kline and the Bower City male quartette.

At the close of the banquet a subscription was taken and $255 raised to open rooms and start the work for young men. On Saturday some of the business men secured enough to swell the subscription list to $333. On Sunday Messrs. Anderson and Kline helped in special christian work and in the evening a union meeting at the Baptist church brought the financial standard up to $400. Monday it was raised to $500, and up to yesterday $625.

At a meeting Friday night in the Congregational church it was decided that a building owned by the Y. M. C. A. for the young men of Brodhead was the only thing and for the present. The subscription for rooms was set aside and a building canvass started. This morning six persons agreed to give $100 each if $2,000 was raised in like sums. Another man is considering giving a lot, and three or four are expected to give $500 each providing a building free of all debt can be erected.

LA PRAIRIE

La Prairie, April 2.—A warm rain would be welcomed by all to fill cisterns and settle the land. Miss Inez Arnold opened her spring term of school in the Turk district last Monday. Mrs. Nellie Franklin has returned to her home in Janesville, after spending several weeks with friends in this place. Henry Scott was compelled to give up work for a few days on account of illness. Miss Nettie Edgington entertained a few friends at dinner Sunday afternoon. Miss Mildred Proctor opened her school in the Sherman district Monday last. Many teachers from this locality attended the usual examination. The examining officer was in his usual good spirits. All who attended the cakewalk given in Janesville by the Rebekahs report a fine time. Miss Louie Lloyd is recovering from an attack of the mumps.

WEST PORTER

West Porter, April 2.—Benj. Davis, one of the oldest settlers of the town of Porter, died at his home March 21. The bereaved relatives have many friends who extend their sympathy. Jay Barnes who has been spending the winter with friends and relatives in New York state returned home last Tuesday. He reports a very pleasant time. Miss Jennie Sperry is working in a dressmaking shop in Edgerton. Miss Letta Jones closed another successful term of school in the Wilder district last week Friday. Many are sick with mumps in this vicinity. Harvey Danks and Locke Piece were guests of relatives near Oregon part of last week.

The Milk Ordinance

Editor The Gazette: I believe that the proposed ordinance, as I understand it, to compel all dealers selling milk in this city to have cows examined by an inspector charging a fee is a great injustice and inconsistent in view of the fact that it is aimed directly at the milk supply, and allows butter to be sold, meat to be retailed from the butcher without question.

Editor The Gazette:

If there is disease among the cattle it is in the butter and meat supply as well as the milk. I believe that everything possible should be done for a pure food supply, but it is certainly an injustice to reach for the milkman and let the other products from the same source go free.

As I understand the proposed ordinance it is just sufficient to increase the cost of milk to the dealer and in turn to the consumer without fully accomplishing the much desired result.

People will get pure milk when they give a thought of what is required to make and handle milk to keep it pure and then demand it.

If it is suspected that cattle are diseased in any herd send for the state veterinarian. If you believe your milk supply is adulterated drop a card to our assistant food commissioner, Mr. Chadwick of Monroe, and if he catches a culprit do not continue to patronize him as though he had been a martyr to the cause.

Not Yet Entirely Gormantized.

Even at this late day a number of the men of Alsace and Lorraine oppose service in the German army. In the thirty-nine districts of Metz 89 persons on Jan. 1 were before the court on this account.

UNION MEETING NEXT SUNDAY

Nature of the Y. M. C. A. Conference At the Congregational Church.

At the Congregational church next Sunday a Y. M. C. A. conference will be held which will be a union meeting of the five local evangelical churches. The principal speaker of the evening will be C. C. Michener of Chicago, one of the international secretaries who will speak on the "World Wide Work of the Y. M. C. A." Reports of the good work done by the local association will be read and good music will prevail.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va.—About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddock insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. THREE LIES THREE TIMES IN OUR WANT COLUMN FOR 25 CENTS.

HE GETS LAST OF $2,000,000.

President Harper Raises $165,000 for His University in a Day.

Chicago, April 2.—On the last day of the time limit set by John D. Rockefeller, President Harper succeeded in securing $165,000 to complete the $2,000,000 donation necessary to secure a like amount from the Standard Oil magnate, according to the terms of his offer made five years ago. Dr. Harper announced his success at a meeting of the trustees held in Studebaker hall. A telegram was at once sent to Mr. Rockefeller giving in detail the names of the donors and the amounts of their contributions. Soon a reply was received stating that the founder was satisfied with the information, and stood ready to fulfill his pledge. Dr. Harper declined to give for publication the names of the final donors.

The Fetishism of Savage Africa makes as shudder, and fills us with disgust. Yet we have fetishes of our own, one of them great, widely worshipped, and in whose name crimes innumerable are daily perpetrated. The name of that fetish is Ignorance.

To that powerful fetish thousands of mothers annually make sacrifice of their daughters. For what is it but a sacrifice to the fetish Ignorance to permit girls to blossom to womanhood, and enter the marriage relation without one helpful hint of the obligations of that relation and its physical perils?

Just the word which the mother fails to speak would turn the young girls' attention to the danger of irregularity.

For it is in the ignorance of the necessity for regularity in the periods that the foundation is laid for the debilitating drains, the female weakness, bearing-down pains, inflammation and ulceration that rob marriage of joy and motherhood of happiness.

That "God-send for women" as women have named it, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, establishes regularity of the periods, dries up all unhealthy drains, cures female disease, and inflammation and ulceration of the peculiarly feminine organs.

Women suffering from diseases peculiarly feminine, may consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, by letter at the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, absolutely without charge or fee. Each letter is opened in strict privacy, read as sacredly confidential and to preserve the seal of confidence unbroken, all replies are sent in plain envelopes, bearing no single word of printed matter.

WE KEEP THE QUALITY UP.

Stanley Shirt Waists

We are exclusive agents here for these popular waists and are now showing the new spring styles. We had to order them last November or we would not have them now. Although made in the largest shirt waist factory in the world, even then the demand for Stanley Waists is so large that orders must be placed months in advance to secure them.

At 50c, 75c and $1.00 we show unusually good values, much better than can be found elsewhere. Others at $1.25, $1.50 to $3.00—beautiful styles, exclusive things that will not be common. Lovely white waists, $1 to $3. Our stock is not yet complete but we show about 60 dozen at present and new things being received weekly.

TELLS OF MISSING CIPHER.

Former Consul Believes British May Have Copied Our Code.

Kansas City, Mo., April 2.—James Buckley of this city, who was United States consul general at Gogota in 1897, says he is convinced that the British government is in possession of the cipher code used by the department of state, and thinks he can account for the manner in which the code was secured. He says: "In 1890, when Dr. Jeremiah Caughlin was appointed consul general at Bogota, he found William G. Boshell, the vice consul general, in charge. Dr. Caughlin made an inventory of the office and found the code missing. Mr. Boshell said it had always been kept in a certain bookcase, and could not account for its absence. Three weeks later it was returned to the bookcase as mysteriously as it had disappeared. Boshell was a British subject. He became involved in some unpleasantness in Bogota and returned to London in 1897."

Gets Revenge with a Whip.

Detroit, Mich., April 2.—A dramatic scene occurred in Oakwood this afternoon. A woman with flaming red hair stood in the center of the road wrapped in a long cloak. There was determination in her eye as she nervously awaited the approach of a team hauling a load of wood and a man, evidently a farmer, seated on it. The man attempted to whip up his horses as he reached the woman, but she ran beside the wagon and rained blow after blow across the man's face and shoulders with a whip she had taken from under her cloak. She said the man had insulted her.

South Magnetic Pole Located.

Wellington, April 2.—The exploring steamer South Cross, bearing Mr. C. E. Borchgrevink and the survivors of the south polar expedition fitted out in 1895 by Sir George Newnes of London, arrived today at Campbell Town, near Bluff Harbor, New Zealand. Mr. Borchgrevink reports that the magnetic pole has been located. Mr. N. Hansen, one of the zoologists who started on the expedition, died on the voyage.

Dies Praying for Her Son.

Columbus, Ohio, April 2.—Mrs. William Styles dropped dead at a religious meeting at South Webster, Ohio, Sunday night. She had made repeated efforts to induce her son, John Styles, to go forward and profess conversion and at last started forward to pray for him. As she reached the front of the church she paused, called her son's name, staggered and fell full length in front of the pulpit.

Car Hangs Over a Precipice.

Pittston, Pa., April 2.—A crowded street car of the Wilkes-Barre & Wyoming Valley Traction company jumped the track on North Main street Sunday and plunged through the railing guarding a high embankment. The passengers had no time to escape. The car did not pause until the fore truck and entire front were hanging far out over the embankment.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth.

Be sure and use the old and well tried remedy Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Murdered His 12-Year-Old Son.

Kansas City, Mo., April 2.—Harboring imaginary wrongs, John W. McKimm, aged 29 years, this afternoon shot and killed Dr. B. P. Shaw, his brother-in-law, as the latter sat reading the Sunday school lesson to his 5-year old daughter. Shaw died instantly. McKimm, who had been an inmate of a sanitarium, and is believed to be insane, threatened to kill the other five members of the family, and as they came running to the scene McKimm coolly raised his revolver to fire at the first who appeared. Before he could fire a second time he was overpowered by his two brothers and taken to the station. There the murderer refused to talk and appeared unconcerned.

Accused of a Bold Robbery.

New York, April 2.—Henry Russell and Sid Yennie, alias Henry Ferguson, who claim to be speculator and salesman, respectively, have been arrested on suspicion of being connected with the robbery of Healy's restaurant at Columbus avenue and Sixty-sixth street last Monday. On that day several men went to Healy's restaurant to dine. After the meal one of the men attracted the attention of the cashier while another crawled to the safe and stole $700. The waiters in the restaurant have identified Russell as one of the men.

Dies from Drinking Whisky.

Venice, Ill., April 2.—Henry Dorst drank a quart of whisky without stopping here and was found dead soon after. He and some companions entered a saloon. One of them noticed a quart bottle of whisky on the bar and said: "If you drink all of that at once I will pay for it."

Transport Sherman Sails.

Manila, April 2.—The United States transport Sherman sailed Sunday with a battalion of the Fourteenth Infantry, Capt. Richard T. Yeatman, Armand I. Lasseigne and William S. Biddle, Lieuts. Robert Field and Oliver, 175 military prisoners and twenty-five insane.

Corea Yields to the Bear.

Yokohama, April 2.—It is reported that the government of Corea has granted the Russian demand for ground within the settlement of Masampo.

STREET RAILWAY DEAL FAILS.

Brown Brothers & Co. Abandon Negotiations in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., April 2.—After April 19 Brown Bros. & Co. will have no further connection with the street railways of St. Louis. They could not secure the assent of 80 per cent of the certificate holders to their proposition for an extension of one year on their option, and the distribution of the unsold bonds and stocks will, therefore, be made as agreed, the bonds on April 12 and the stocks on April 19. The effect of this is problematical, and no one could be found who could predict the next move in the $90,000,000 deal. However, it will not affect the consolidation, as the syndicate simply had an option on the securities and will simply return them to the certificate holders, who will be at liberty to do with them as they please. Of bonds $10,654,414, of preferred stock $9,255,257 and of common stock $14,011,227 remain unsold. These amounts will be distributed as agreed on.

Italy Approves Reciprocity.

Rome, April 2.—The treaty commission of the Italian chamber of deputies has approved the reciprocity arrangement under the third section of the Dingley act signed last February in Washington by Baron Fava, the Italian ambassador, and John A. Kasson, special plenipotentiary for the United States.

Shot Down in the Road.

Springfield, Ill., April 2.—Elmer Clark, an aged farmer, residing near Petersburg, murdered Harry Ball, his daughter's suitor. The deed was committed in the road in front of Clark's farmhouse.

When doctors fail try Burdock Blood Bitters. Cures dyspepsia constipation; invigorates the whole system.

Rare Honors for a Priest.

Kewanee, Ill., April 2.—Rev. Father D. L. Crowe of the Church of the Visitation here Sunday received a long cablegram from his holiness, Pope Leo, at Rome, announcing the receipt of congratulations from the Kewanee parish on his ninetieth birthday and ordering Father Crowe to give the apostolic benediction to all.

Mansfield Is Indisposed.

Louisville, Ky., April 2.—Richard Mansfield cut short his Louisville engagement, declining to appear for the afternoon and evening performances, the advance sale for which had been in progress during the week. Money paid by ticket purchasers was refunded. Illness was given as the reason for the change of plans.

Gen. Pana Has Surrendered.

Manila, April 2.—The Chinese general, Pana, who has been terrorizing and devastating the province of Panay, has surrendered at Legaspi to Brig. Gen. Kobbe, who is bringing him to Manila.

FEEL THE CHANGE.

Hundreds Voluntarily Endorse a Scientific Product.

A Statement by a Well Known Citizen Who Has Found Great Relief by Using It.

The great good that Morrow's Kid-ne-oids are doing in Janesville for all forms of kidney and urinary disorders is being daily told by our citizens. A/ who use Kid-ne-oids for backache, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness and general debility give hearty expression of the quick relief they obtained.

Mrs. A. H. Taylor, 60 Prospect Ave., whose husband is a painter in Kent's shop, says: "My husband has complained of kidney backache for the past two years. He was also subject to rheumatism in his joints and to spells of dizziness and nervousness. He could not sleep or rest on account of his troubles. He was treated by doctors and took different kinds of kidney remedies, but only temporary relief followed, until he heard of Morrow's Kid-ne-oids and used them according to directions. Since using Kid-ne-oids he has not complained of backache or any of his former troubles, he sleeps well and looks so much better."

Mailed on receipt of price. Manufactured by John Morrow & Co., chemists, Springfield, Ohio.

SORES and Ulcers

That old sore or ulcer, which has been a source of pain, worry and anxiety to you for five or ten years—maybe longer—doesn't heal because you are not using the proper treatment, but are trying to cure it with salves and washes. While these are soothing and relieve pain to some extent, no real, permanent good can come from their use, because the disease is in the blood and far beyond the reach of external applications.

A sore heals promptly when the blood is in good condition, but never if it is diseased. The tendency of these old sores and ulcers is to grow worse, spreading and eating deeper into the flesh. They are a constant drain upon the system, gradually but surely ruin the health and sap the very life. A person's capacity for work or pleasure is soon lost in the great desire and search for something to cure.

S. S. S. makes a rapid and permanent cure of old sores and ulcers, and is the only medicine that does, because no other can reach deep-seated blood troubles. Ordinary Sarsaparilla and potash mixtures are too weak and watery to overcome a deadly poison that has taken possession of the blood. Do not waste valuable time experimenting with them.

"Some years ago I was shot in the left leg, receiving what I considered only a slight wound. It developed into a running sore and gave me a great deal of pain. I was treated by many doctors, and took a number of blood remedies, but none did me any good. I had heard S. S. S. highly recommended and concluded to give it a trial. The result was truly gratifying. S. S. S. seemed to get right at the trouble, and forced the poison out of my blood; soon afterwards the sore healed up and was cured sound and well. I now have perfect use of the leg, which was swollen and very stiff for a long time." J. H. McBRAYER, Lawrenceburg, Ky.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known; is made of roots and herbs of wonderful purifying properties, which no poison can resist. S. S. S. quickly and effectually cleans the blood of all morbid, unhealthy humors, and the old, troublesome sore heals. At the same time the general health is invigorated and built up. When a little scratch or hurt fails to heal readily, you may be sure your blood is bad. S. S. S. will soon put it in order and keep it so.

Our Medical Department is in charge of experienced physicians, who have made blood diseases a life study. If you will write them about your case, they will gladly furnish all information or advice wanted, without any charge whatever. Address SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

DRAIN THE SYSTEM, ENDANGER LIFE.

A sore heals promptly when the blood is in good condition, but never if it is diseased. The tendency of these old sores and ulcers is to grow worse, spreading and eating deeper into the flesh. They are a constant drain upon the system, gradually but surely ruin the health and sap the very life. A person's capacity for work or pleasure is soon lost in the great desire and search for something to cure.

S. S. S. makes a rapid and permanent cure of old sores and ulcers, and is the only medicine that does, because no other can reach deep-seated blood troubles. Ordinary Sarsaparilla and potash mixtures are too weak and watery to overcome a deadly poison that has taken possession of the blood. Do not waste valuable time experimenting with them.

"Some years ago I was shot in the left leg, receiving what I considered only a slight wound. It developed into a running sore and gave me a great deal of pain. I was treated by many doctors, and took a number of blood remedies, but none did me any good. I had heard S. S. S. highly recommended and concluded to give it a trial. The result was truly gratifying. S. S. S. seemed to get right at the trouble, and forced the poison out of my blood; soon afterwards the sore healed up and was cured sound and well. I now have perfect use of the leg, which was swollen and very stiff for a long time." J. H. McBRAYER, Lawrenceburg, Ky.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known; is made of roots and herbs of wonderful purifying properties, which no poison can resist. S. S. S. quickly and effectually cleans the blood of all morbid, unhealthy humors, and the old, troublesome sore heals. At the same time the general health is invigorated and built up. When a little scratch or hurt fails to heal readily, you may be sure your blood is bad. S. S. S. will soon put it in order and keep it so.

Our Medical Department is in charge of experienced physicians, who have made blood diseases a life study. If you will write them about your case, they will gladly furnish all information or advice wanted, without any charge whatever. Address SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1743—Thomas Jefferson born at Shadwell, Albemarle county, Va.; died 1826.

1791—Count Mirabeau, orator, statesman and revolutionist, died in Paris; born 1733.

1855—Richard Cobden, called in England "the friend of America," died; born 1804; he was eminent also as a free trader.

1872—Professor Samuel Finley Breese Morse, inventor of magnetic telegraph, died in New York; born at Charlestown, Mass., 1791.

Morse was an artist of talent and taste before he turned inventor. He studied painting in London under Benjamin West, where Fulton, the steamboat projector, also learned his art. On a voyage home he suggested to his fellow passengers the idea of an electric telegraph. He operated a small line successfully in 1838 and in 1846 received a grant from congress to construct a line between Baltimore and Washington. The result has been called the greatest triumph ever obtained by human genius over space and time.

1885—Franz Aht, German composer, died; born in Saxony 1819.

1891—General Albert Pike, eccentric lawyer and poet and a prominent Freemason, died in Washington; born in Massachusetts 1809.

1900—Benjamin T. Tweed, educator and author, died at Cambridge, Mass.; born 1811.

SCHEME WILL FAIL.

Marshall P. Richardson, the republican candidate for city attorney, is admittedly a competent lawyer, and exceptionally well qualified for the position. He has had extensive experience in the trial of both civil and criminal actions and if the city's business is placed in his hands, it will be attended to with fidelity and ability. Mr. Richardson has made a clean canvass. He is running on his merits, and has developed the full party strength. This is as it should be. Republicans should stand together and support their own ticket and their own policies. The democratic ring is concentrating every energy for the defeat of Richardson. It was in the interest of this move that an endorsement was given James A. Fathers. The motive was purely sinister, but Mr. Fathers was too sharp to be caught napping, and did not accept the endorsement. He stands today as he has always stood—as a representative of the republican party only. Therefore the scheme will not work. The republicans of Janesville are not yet ready to do the bidding of the democratic ring, and will show their disapproval of the scheme by voting for Marshall P. Richardson.

The ring is working the same scheme in the Second ward in a superhuman effort to defeat Fred L. Clemens—admittedly one of the best men that ever sat on the school board. The democratic plan is to sacrifice the entire ward ticket to compass Mr. Clemens' defeat, but this, too, will fail. The friends of Alderman Peters, and the other democratic candidates do not relish the idea of sacrificing Mr. Peters for the sake of Colin C. MacLean. They say Mr. Peters is entitled to the party vote, and that he will get it. It is admitted that C. L. Valentine will defeat Mr. Peters for alderman, but the friends of the latter gentleman are angry to think that the democratic ring would throw dirt on him when he is leading a forlorn hope.

As has been before stated, the democratic managers only hope to defeat Mr. Richardson and Mr. Clemens, and are willing to knife all the other democratic candidates to that end. The friends of the other candidates know that this is the scheme. Many democrats dislike the ring rule and resent such dictation. Hence, the plan will surely fail unless the republican voters are willing to serve the democratic ring. City Attorney Burpee is unfortunate in being the man for whom the ring is working. That he has made a capable officer is not denied, but the people—both democrats and republicans—are tired of the machinations of the ring, and Mr. Burpee—"the innocent must suffer with the guilty"—must pay the penalty of the ring's perfidy.

Republicans, vote the straight republican ticket. When democrats propose to do so, what earthly reason is there for any republican to do otherwise?

THEY ALL LIKE HIM

The fact that the press of the state has treated Senator Whitehead so kindly is exceedingly significant. It is no disparagement to the other candidates for the high office of governor to say that Senator Whitehead has stronger support among the newspapers than any of the others mentioned, but the fact is self evident. The clippings published by The Gazette have been taken from papers in all parts of the state, and cover the entire commonwealth. Among them are found the representatives of all the elements of the party, showing conclusively that Senator Whitehead is uniformly well thought of by men who are otherwise bitter political enemies.

Many republicans, not only in Janesville, but in Milwaukee and other cities, say that Senator Whitehead's chances for securing the nomination are better than those of any other man on the list.

Many democrats who are opposed to the rule of the present ring in the local democratic party, will vote the republican ticket this spring. "The triangle" has had things its own way for a long time, but a revolt will become apparent tomorrow. The rank and file of the democratic party in Janesville have become tired of turning the grindstone for the three or four men who boss them about like cattle, and propose to assert their independence. The transparency of the present political plot is responsible for much of the feeling, and a host has been called.

Do not be misled by the talk of The Recorder, Mr. Voter. James A. Fathers' name does not, and will not, appear on the democratic ticket. Mr. Fathers is the nominee of the republican party only. The democrats endorsed him, but as he did not accept the endorsement, it counts for nothing. Mr. Fathers is the republican nominee, and a straight democratic vote will not count for him, as his name only appears on the ballot in the republican column.

Second ward republicans should see to it that Fred L. Clemens is retained on the school board. That no more competent man ever served in that capacity is admitted by all the school commissioners, both past and present.

Tomorrow is election day, and the citizens of Janesville will register their choice for city officers. The republican nominees are worthy of the heartiest support, and should be elected. Vote a straight ticket.

Marshall P. Richardson is a thoroughly competent lawyer, and an exceptionally close student. Support him with your ballot. He will fill the office to the complete satisfaction of all.

"Tom, Dick and Harry do not run the town. Neither do Pete, Jim, Ike and Jerry." Vote the straight republican ticket.

There will be but little "bloodshed and rioting at the polls tomorrow," although there are liable to be several knockouts.

Don't split your ticket in order to please the democrats. They will never split their ticket to please you.

Vote the straight republican ticket and rebuke the democratic bosses who administer "ring rule."

And at Milwaukee, too, this was "the day before."

Only four more caucuses will be held this year.

CLEANLINESS WITHOUT SOAP.

That the Boers Don't Use It Doesn't Prove They're Dirty.

Surely too much importance is attached to the scarcity of soap in the Boers' farm houses, says the London Truth. People may be very clean and use very little soap. The Russians and Japanese cleanse themselves with vapor baths, rarely using soap when they do so. A really healthy skin cleanses itself. Rough inside clothing, which I presume the Boers wear, is a great skin cleanser. I have known of doctors curing skin diseases by insisting on lingerie de luxe being cast aside and coarse, undergarments worn instead. The late emperor of the French hardly ever soaped his hands until he went to England. I have come across a paper found in his desk at the Tuilleries. It contained the instructions of the king of Holland to the governor of his two elder sons. Among the things forbidden was for the young princes' hands to be washed with soap. They were to use bran and a slice of lemon. The lemon was to remove ink stains, and in summer to keep off gnats and mosquitoes. Napoleon, whose hands were good to model and beautifully white, also used bran and no soap, unless to shave. I never use soap of any kind without a sense of skin discomfort which not even a deluge of quite pure water will wholly remove. In England, on account of coal smoke, soap is more needed than in countries with clear air. The Boers enjoy, perhaps, the purest atmosphere in the world, except when there are dust storms. I know French ladies who have discarded soap for vaseline. They smear themselves with the latter and then rub it off well with a soft cotton towel. A doctor tells me that nothing is more cleansing, but that he prefers, as more tonic, plain cold water, followed by the same sort of rubbing. Dr. Leyds really should not take to heart what Sir Henry Stanley said about the Boers being badly off for soap.

ARTIFICIAL SILK.

Development of the Industry Now Going On by Leaps.

The silk worm, with its comparatively small output, has now a rival in artificial "silk," and it was to explain the processes by which this is produced that Joseph Cash, chairman of a factory at Woburn, near Coventry, read a paper at the Society of Arts, says the London Mail. Sir T. Wardle presided. Many attempts have been made, said Mr. Cash, to produce a material resembling silk, but only recently have they resulted in a commercially successful fabric. The earliest imitation was spun glass, which in its flexibility and brilliancy is excellent for millinery or dress ties, but its limitations are soon reached, for it can only be spun certain lengths, and it possesses little or no warmth. "Polished" cotton, "mercerized" cotton and Pandora "silk," made of gelatin thread, have struggled for recognition in the market, but complete victory seems to be reserved to what is known as collodion "silk," produced by the Chardonnet method, which is elaborate. Enormous sums of money it appears had been lost ere the present success was attained two years ago. But now the development of the industry is going on by leaps and bounds in Besancon, in France and in Switzerland. The material has an even greater brilliancy than silk, but the warmth is not so great. It is more durable, however, than the natural silk as known to the ordinary customer.

Mammoth Engine.

The mammoth machine for supplying power for the Boston Elevated Railway, now in progress, is said to be the monarch of engines. Its indicated power at maximum efficiency is 4,000, but this can be varied 12 to 15 per cent either way, without affecting its efficiency; the engine shaft is of hollow forged nickel steel, 27 feet 10 inches in length, 32 inches in diameter in the bearings and 37 inches in the body, with a 17½ inch hole through its length. The weight of the engine shaft is 55,410 pounds, of the crank disc 58,004 pounds, and of the fly-wheel 125,000 pounds, making a load on the bearings, aside from the connecting rod, pistons, etc., 513,929 pounds; 143 pounds per square inch of projected area. The diameter of the fly-wheel is 78 feet, and the main bearings are 32 inches in diameter, 55 inches long and 19 feet 9 inches center to center.

Australian Opal Mines.

Opal mining is one of the latest Australian mineral industries. The principal opal mining center is White Cliffs, where the gem has been found in highly paying quantities and of the richest quality, within a radius of ten miles, and a population of 1,500 or thereabouts is settled there.

PRESENTED WADE WITH A DIAMOND

FELLOW WORKMEN SHOW THEIR LOVE FOR HIM.

Presentation Made Yesterday at the Local Shops—Raisa Flag in Honor of Mr. Wade's Promotion—Was Respected By a Large Circle of Local Friends—Goes to Chicago.

Fellow workmen perpetrated a surprise on Assistant Master Mechanic E. H. Wade at the local Chicago & Northwestern railroad shops yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock. He was presented with a costly diamond stud in honor of his promotion from that of foreman of the Chicago & Northwestern shops in this city, to the position of assistant master mechanic of the Wisconsin division. Mr. Wade will be succeeded by Mr. Erickson, who has filled the position of general foreman at Baraboo, Wis.

Edward G. Harlow made the following appropriate presentation speech:

The honor has been conferred upon me, to address you in behalf of the employees of these shops, night and day, and of the engineers and firemen running into Janesville, and chiefly making their headquarters here, on the occasion of your leaving-taking.

But a few days since, rumors were current that you were to retire from the field of your usefulness here to accept promotion. These rumors from authentic sources, were received with surprise and unfeigned feelings of regret. You had been with us but a few short months, but the attachment and friendship of all toward you was remarkable for its spontaneous steadfastness. Your excellent reputation preceded you here, sir, and while you gain friends with all employers and others you meet, and make no enemies, it is our happy lot to mark your pathway in the future, with happiness and corresponding success.

We trust that your experience with us will leave at pleasant memories in your heart as will go forth from us to you.

Little is known by the general public of the great responsibilities resting on the foreman, or master mechanic of a locomotive machine shop; of the labor performed in building and maintaining of the locomotive power of the railroads and the various duties of the mechanic and his assistants, and the power of the locomotive, which now glides the earth with its pathway.

You fully appreciate and understand thoroughly, the requirements of the man whose hand is on the throttle of that 80 ton beauty of a locomotive, and who has in keeping the lives of the precious human freight behind him, and here assembled men who have arrived at the competency of leaving distances and dangers with but but a touch of one finger to the throttle-lever spring, opening the forces of steam contained in the incandescent engine, till speed over fields and plains, surpassing the hurricane of winds at a speed of 75 to 90 miles per hour, arriving at the haven in safety.

Here, also, are expert mechanics, whose requirements are to put this locomotive in shape to perform the duties described. Here also are assembled competent and indispensable mechanics' helpers. The boiler-makers, and helpers, experts in their own line to determine the safety of the boiler—under the pressure of 200 pounds to the square inch, and making the necessary repairs of the same. The blacksmiths and helpers, an important factor of the shops, are also represented; also the carpenters and car department, a necessary auxiliary.

The locomotive foreman, an important adjunct and indispensable helper in the locomotive department, are here in goodly numbers, and of their proficiency and good behavior, any foreman, and his assistants, engine engineer and assistant, a competent crew of engine dispatchers, all are represented. The office forces are here also, consisting of storekeeper and helper, operator and clerk. All come, sir, to help do you the honors of the occasion.

You, sir, as chief, a thorough mechanic, counselor and director of these forces, have even the respect and gained the kindly affection of everyone, and your departure from our midst, even after so brief a stay, evokes the deepest regret among all. Happily, sir, we do not get out of the pale of your jurisdiction, and will see you frequently in the future. We trust and hope to be prepared to see you at any time.

COURT DISCHARGES BOTH DEFENDANTS

LACK OF SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE IN ASSAULT CASE.

Four Witnesses Sworn Were None of Them Positive As to Identification—Thomas Dougherty and Robert Davenport the Defendants—Case Was a Weak One For State.

For the lack of sufficient evidence Thomas Dougherty and Robert Davenport were discharged today in the municipal court of Rock county. The defendants were arrested on the charge of assault with intent to rob Edward Connell on the night of November 20, 1899. When the case was called this morning, four witnesses were examined on the part of the state, they being John W. Hogan, John Brown, Alex Stamper and Edward Connell. Their evidence was of such a slim character that the court ordered the discharge of the defendants. The night the assault was committed was so dark that the four witnesses were not positive as to identification.

Attorney W. G. Wheeler appeared for Mr. Dougherty and District Attorney W. A. Jackson represented the state. Harry Davenport said this afternoon: "I don't think that my boy or Mr. Dougherty have been treated right in this matter. This affair has been widely published, and their names injured. The officers arrested my boy without a warrant. They placed him in jail, and there he remained over Sunday, not even knowing what he was arrested for. I don't think the police have acted fair in the matter."

ATTORNEYS BUSY DRAWING DEEDS

GOOD PRICES PAID BY THE RAILWAY COMPANY.

Railroad Officials Now Admit That the New Milwaukee Road Line Will Cross Spring Brook and Will Connect with Mineral Point Division Line.

Certain local attorneys were busy today drawing deeds on property in the Spring Brook and Monterey districts through which the new line of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad will pass. Railroad officials no longer deny that the road will enter the city via this route. The line will be rushed to completion this summer. Since the locating of the road through Spring Brook considerable property in that portion of the city has changed hands. This property has for the greater part been lots that have been sold at a fair price.

The Milwaukee road officials who arrived in Janesville in their private car have returned to Milwaukee. They expressed themselves highly pleased with the progress made in obtaining land concessions within the city limits. Several surveys are now in the city to work on the line.

COLE MACLEAN IS SORE

Two Women Take Charity Sloan's Word for His Donation for Their Relief.

An elderly woman accompanied by a young girl were seen in the postoffice lobby yesterday afternoon weeping as if their hearts would break. A number of people passed by without attempting to inquire into the cause of the distress. Then Charity Sloan came along. He has the nerve and also a big heart and he won't stand for any poor woman weeping in the post office entrance without coming to her assistance.

He discovered that the women had walked in from Afton on their road to Milwaukee and were stranded without a cent and had had nothing to eat for twelve or more hours. Mr. Sloan elicited these facts in a very short time and when he was satisfied he promptly dove down into his trouser pockets. He had only a half a dollar which he had planned to spend for his Sunday dinner, but he quickly passed it over to the elderly woman.

In the meanwhile quite a crowd had collected and among others Cole MacLean. The affable Cole, never behind in any case to relieve distress, especially in the case of a woman, fished out a "cart wheel" and offered it to the woman.

She looked at MacLean and then at Sloan and reluctantly took the dollar. "I don't know," she said, "I am afraid to take the money. This gentleman might be giving it to me just to have me arrested for being a vagrant and a beggar."

"Oh — — —" broke in Charity Sloan, "you just take that dollar. I'll guarantee Cole."

"Oh! that's all right," the woman said, "I knew the moment I heard you swear you was a gentleman; we are ever so much obliged. Thank you."

Then they went to a restaurant and got a square meal. Later money was raised down town to send them to Milwaukee where they went on a night train.

But Cole MacLean is sore.

Mrs. G. W. Lewis

MEET DEATH IN THE FLAMES.

Owosso, Mich., Visited by a Disastrous Fire.

TWO DEAD AND FIVE INJURED.

The City Suffers a Loss of $150,000 by the Burning of its Central Educational Building—Fireman and a Boy Are Killed.

Owosso, Mich., April 2.—Fire destroyed $150,000 worth of school property in this city, caused the death of two and injury to five others. At 7 o'clock the city's 15,000 people witnessed the burning of the central school, the largest building in this county. The dead: Fred Ross, fireman; Frank Tucker, schoolboy. The injured: Will Ross, Charles Beatty, fireman; Frank Rutledge, schoolboy; Frank Davis, schoolboy; Solomon Vogel, schoolboy. The fire started from a chimney burning out. Sparks fell into the belfry and down upon the dry floor of a large attic. The flames burned through the floor before being noticed. When an alarm had been sounded and the fire department responded to the call the firemen's work was ineffectual, as the schoolhouse stood on a hill and the water pressure was too slight. In two hours the building was a heap of ruins. A two-story wing was saved. When the fire seemed to be about out, Fred Ross, his brother, Will Ross, and Charles Beatty, all firemen, were in the corridor on the third floor of the school building getting out the hose. A fireman remarked that the west main wall seemed secure. No sooner had the words been spoken than down came the wall with a crash. A rush was made by firemen for the mass of ruins. The Ross brothers and Beatty could not be found. Those who were injured were found pinned among rafters in the west wing of the building, forty feet from where they stood when the crash came. Fred and Will Ross and Charles Beatty were carried through two floors into the basement of the building. Fred Ross was killed instantly. The other two men were horribly mangled. Their condition is serious and their death is expected. When the crash came, Frank Tucker, Frank Davis, Frank Rutledge and Solomon Vogel, young schoolboys, were hurrying down the stairs with arms full of books. A timber fell, knocking the boys into a corner between the main wall and the corner of a covered entrance. Bricks fell and struck the boys, killing Tucker and stunning the others. The latter, however, jumped through a window into the basement, and were found there half an hour later, unconscious and bleeding. Vogel may die, having received internal injuries.

Overwork

and Worry bring on Nervous Prostration, Sleeplessness, and an endless train of Painful Disorders.

Dr. Miles' Nervine.

When the nerves and organs of the body are well and strong, and the worn-out tissues and waste products are quickly removed from the system, a tremendous amount of hard work can be done without serious injury. It is when the nerve tissues and brain cells are used up faster than they are replaced by new ones, when the fires of life consume faster than the fuel can be furnished, that brain, nerves and vital organs suffer—cry out with neuralgia, heart disease, rheumatism, nervous dyspepsia—and finally break down. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is food for the worn-out brain and wasted tissues. It gives a healthy appetite; makes the weak stomach strong; increases the flow of digestive juices and puts the lazy liver to work. It is the greatest blood vitalizer and nerve remedy science has produced.

"I was suffering from sleeplessness and painful nervous sensations, brought on from overwork and anxiety, and although I tried a number of different remedies for this disorder, I obtained little or no benefit from any of them. In fact some of the advertised remedies seemed to increase rather than diminish the difficulty, until one day I determined to give Dr. Miles' Nervine a trial. The first few doses convinced me that I had found a specific for my trouble and I continued its use with the most satisfactory results. It seemed to feed the nervous system, afford restful sleep without any of the after effects of an opiate or any artificial stimulant and can be discontinued at will. I deem it the best remedy for nervous people now on the market."

Upon receiving his ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter if he wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party, should make a cross mark X under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the square made for that purpose. A ballot so marked, and having no other mark, will be counted for all the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased or a cross mark be placed in the square under the name or at any place in the space occupied by the name or names of candidates in another column, and will be counted for all names written in lieu of one erased. If the voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties, he should make a cross mark under the name of each candidate he desires to vote for, or at any place within the space in which the name is printed. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memoranda to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked, it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed indorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is totally blind, he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

ELECTION NOTICE.

Office of County Clerk,
March 26th, 1900.

To the Electors of Rock County:

Notice is hereby given that a judicial election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the County of Rock, on the 3rd day of April, 1900, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose names have been certified to this office, are given opposite the title of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, and the questions submitted to vote are stated below:

INFORMATION TO VOTERS.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter, upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have indorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other can be used. Upon receiving his ballot the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter must make a cross mark X, under the name of each person he desires to vote for. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memoranda to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked, it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed indorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is totally blind he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath in his discretion as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

SCIENTISTS FIND

That Typhoid Germs Are Bred in Oysters by Sewage.

A scare was caused in England some years ago by the statement that oysters were active disseminators of typhoid fever. The consumption in London of what are invariably referred to in the country papers as "luscious bivalves" thereupon fell off 50 per cent. The cockney, alive to his opportunities, refused to buy oysters for his sweetheart, on the ground that they were dangerous. As oysters are very expensive in Great Britain anyhow, people were easily convinced of their unwholesomeness. The reduction in consumption caused a rapid fall in prices. It also injured the American exportation of Blue Points to England. Prof. Herdman and Boyce went to live among oysters of Lancashire to find out if they are really so dangerous. They looked into the cause of the color of green oysters. "The green hue," they picturesquely say in their report, "is equally familiar to the man who raises them for the market, to the one who raises them from their bed with a pair of rakes, and also to him who raises them out of their own juices from the half shell by means of a silver trident. This coloring has been attributed variously to metals, vegetable coloring matter, bile pigment and the pigment of diatoms." The investigations of the learned oyster sharps, however, yield the fact that the green color is not always due to the same cause. One variety is caused by copper. This appears true of the American green oyster. In other varieties iron is found, while a diatom, or moss, is suspected as a cause to still others. The American green oysters are frequently thin and have shrunken livers. The contamination of oyster beds by sewage and the results of experimental feeding of oysters with matter laden with typhoid fever germs are taken up. Oysters from the vicinity of sewers contain bacteria. Those that have imbibed typhoid bacilli have in them germs which can be cultivated from them fourteen days after infection.—New York Journal.

RIGID CENSORSHIP IN AUSTRIA.

Newspapers in Francis Joseph's Domain Must Not Speak Too Freely.

The editor of a small provincial paper in Austria was in great difficulty to find a fit subject for his leading article, having been too intent upon other business or upon pleasure to provide one. The last moment had come and the editor was in despair. He tortured his brain in vain, when he suddenly was inspired by a happy thought and dashed off the lines: "After carefully perusing the leading article written for the present number by one of the ablest of our contributors, we have arrived at the conclusion that it may be misinterpreted by the authorities and regarded as an attack upon the government. We ourselves consider it to be perfectly innocent, but, as we are unwilling, for our readers' sake, as well as for our own, to have our newspaper confiscated, we have very unwillingly, though, as we think, prudently, resolved to withdraw the article. This must serve as the apology to our readers for the blank space in our present issue." The journal was published in the evening, and the sly editor, after performing this little piece of stratagem, left the office in high humor. As soon as he arrived in the office next morning a clerk came up to him, with a doleful expression, and said, "Herr Redaktor, the paper is confiscated by the police!" "For what reason?" asked the astonished editor. "For malicious ridicule of the institutions of the Austrian empire by the omission of the leading article," replied the man.—New York Press.

Cured of Stammering.

A very important operation was lately reported to the French Academie de Medicine by Prof. Jounesco (of Bucharest), who asserts that he has completely cured a boy of thirteen of a confirmed stammer by craniotomy. His theory is that the cause of the impediment is often a flattening of the left side of the head, which prevents the proper development of the skull, and consequently a compression of the brain at the very place where Broca thought that he could localize the faculty of speech. He therefore cut away such portion of the tissues as appeared to confine at that part the dura mater, and found the experiment completely successful. One wonders whether this, too, was known to neolithic man. Many neolithic skulls have been found from which a small circular piece of the bone has been removed, evidently during life; and it has also puzzled anthropologists to assign a cause for this primitive kind of trephining. But if we assume it was done to cure stammering all difficulty would vanish.

Benefit of High Altitudes.

Going to the mountains for benefit of cases of pulmonary disease is a regular thing among persons thus afflicted. That there is a reason for this many people understand, although they do not know precisely what it is. A number of medical scientists have been working on this question, and have discovered that the increase in the red blood corpuscles, when one moves from lower to higher altitudes, is very marked. As it is known that the absence of red corpuscles causes debility and weakness, so the presence of many of them indicates a higher degree of vitality and better state of health. High, cool air is very beneficial in complaints of this sort. It is partly for this reason that the cold air treatment for consumptives is so highly commended.

SUICIDE AND CIVILIZATION.

The More Progress the More There Is of Self-Destruction.

Felix Adler, the New York ethical clergyman, says of suicides: Suicides are on the increase in the present century. They have tripled in number in the last one hundred years. It is the disease of civilization, increasing in numbers with the progress of civilization. Germany, where civilization has reached the highest point on earth, is the blackest spot in this respect. It is the same story as you proceed from the less to the more liberal creed. Where the population of a community is made up purely of the Russian church there are 46 suicides to the million; where the people are purely of the Catholic faith there are 58 to the million; in Protestant communities there are 190 to the million. External conditions appear to have much to do with the act. There are more suicides in wet weather than in dry, more by night than by day, more on moonlight nights than on dark nights, and there are three times more men to die by their own acts than women. I cannot sit in judgment on those who have done this deed; I cannot enter into their inner life. But I warn all who think of freeing themselves from this life that they have no right to do it. The duty of progress compels us to remain—we must stay. We are here to solve the problems of life, not to evade them. We are here to fulfill our task, not to leave it unfinished. We must make the soul victorious over the senses, and we do that not by evading pain but by conquering it.

An Extraordinary Occurrence.

An extraordinary occurrence was reported in Leicester, England, recently. Special intercession services for soldiers fighting in South Africa are being held daily in Broughton Astley church. While the bell was being rung, however, and the congregation entering the church, a strange visitor arrived. It appeared that the Atherstone hounds had met at Ellesthorpe, found two foxes at Frolesworth Gorse, and followed one across the fields to Broughton Astley. Here the fox, being hard pressed, and seeing the church door open, sought sanctuary there, but the hounds, being close to his heels, followed him into the church, caught him, and there and then dispatched him.

Tea Drinking Causing Cold Feet.

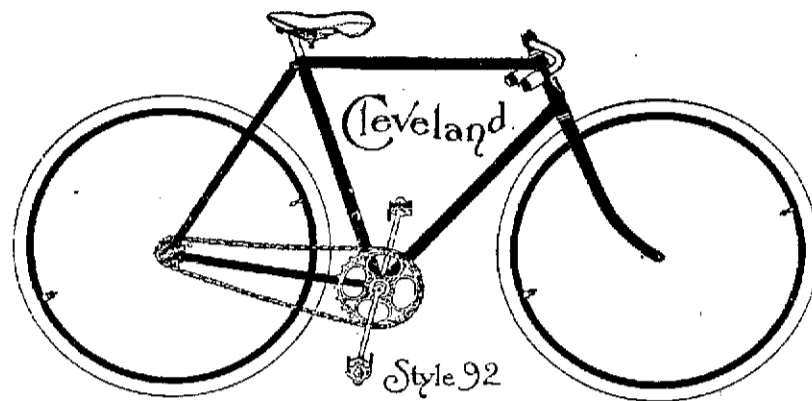

People who suffer from cold feet may ask themselves if this is due to tea drinking. Prof. Hutchinson says it often is such. Coldness, we are told, is probably due to contraction of the arteries. In one lady tea drinker the feet were not only cold, but were observed to be wet with perspiration. We are of opinion that there must be some predisposing cause, unless the drinker be a tea inebriate.—Glasgow Mail.
